

Issue 101 | September 2020

View this email in your browser

1967
50
2017

UACES NEWS

Exchanging Ideas on Europe

Contents: Virtual Conference, Sponsors, Website, Research Networks, Member to Member, Announcements

Save newsletter offline to read later

What's new?

A few months ago, we have asked for your opinion about our newsletter. After assessing the results, we have decided to make a few changes. We will be sending out a shorter but more frequent newsletter (every 4-6 weeks instead of quarterly) which will include timely projects, CfP and the opportunity to exchange ideas with other members.

Email us at admin@uaces.org if you have an announcement, a publication, a project or an event coming up that you would like to share in the European Studies community.

And here it is, the first edition of our revamped newsletter:

UACES Virtual Conference

Thanks to presenters, participants, speakers and chairs!

You have made UACES's 1st Virtual Conference a success. We hope everyone who attended had a great week filled with great experiences and fruitful discussions.

We have created a #UACES2020 playlist on YouTube that includes recordings of panels and the plenary session. If you have a video or recording from the conference you would like to share you are welcome to send it to us so we can add it to the list.

#UACES2020 Playlist

Missed the plenary session?

with

Toni Haastrup (University of Stirling)

Beste İşleyen (University of Amsterdam)

Kékéli Kpognon (Quaker Centre for European Affairs)

Anil Awesti (University of Warwick)

as speakers

and chaired by

UACES EDI Officer Katharine A. M. Wright (Newcastle University)

Watch it here

The #UACES2020 Sponsors

Thanks to our sponsors, who supported us by sponsoring UACES Virtual Conference.

Discover special offers for UACES members.

Eleven International Publishing

Eleven's aim is to support the use of international and European law by offering high quality and timely publications, initially targeted at lawyers working in legal practice. The first segment of this market to be addressed will be that represented by lawyers and policy makers working in government departments and ministries, and by their counterparts in international organizations, both governmental and non-governmental.

For more information, please contact the publisher Selma Hoedt.

eleven
international publishing

Your Dutch International Publisher

Eleven publishes only the best and current research with our monographs, collective works, journals and yearbooks such as East European Yearbook on Human Rights, Hungarian Yearbook of International Law and European Law and book series such as European and International Insolvency Law Studies!

Discover all publications
@ www.elevenpub.com

Intersentia

Intersentia: Publishing European Law Titles

Intersentia is legal a publishing house with a strong focus on Europe. We aspire to publish books that make real, meaningful contributions to their fields, including:

- The European Free Trade Association by Georges Baur (2020)
- Landmark Negotiations from Around the World by Emmanuel Vivet (eds.) (2019)
- Legal Foundations of Macropprudential Policy by Anat Keller (2020)
- Collective Judging in Comparative Perspective by Birke Häcker and Wolfgang Ernst (eds.) (2020)
- European Private International Law and Member State Treaties with Third States by Anatol Dutta and Wolfgang Wurmnest (eds.) (2019)
- Privacy Online, Law and the Effective Regulation of Online Services by Marcin Betkier (2019)

Coronavirus and the Law in Europe (Open Access)

This open access project examines coronavirus-related legislation and its consequences in European states, bringing together contributions from over 85 academics and practitioners in one coherent, digital resource.

[button] Read now on Intersentia Online

Emerald Publishing

Take a look at their virtual bookshelf featuring a wide range of books including everything in their Brexit Studies series.

They are giving you 30% off on all books, to activate this please use code UACES20 at the checkout in their Bookstore.

If you have an idea for a journal article, book or chapter, or want to find out about publishing open access, email Hazel Goodes.

Yale University Press

is offering 30% off a selection of our European Politics, Economics and International Relations books until 31st October.

Titles in the offer include Britain and Europe in a Troubled World by Vernon Bogdanor, The Passage to Europe by Luuk van Middelaar, Trade Wars are Class Wars by Matthew C. Klein and Michael Pettis, What's Wrong with Economics? by Robert Skidelsky and Why Liberalism Failed by Patrick J. Deneen.

More details here: <https://bit.ly/YaleEuro>

Yale

Events Calendar

Browse upcoming (online) events worldwide in European Studies.

During this unprecedented time we are trying to stay as accurate as possible and update events when they are cancelled or moved online.

Calendar

SAVE THE DATE

GENDER &
INCLUSIVITY
IN PEACE
& SECURITY

The Quaker Council for European Affairs (QCEA) and Newcastle University invite you to the launch of an Economic and Social Research Council (ESRC) funded project on gender and inclusivity in peace and security, including an expert panel discussion on the topic.

The event is kindly supported by the Irish Embassy to Belgium.

Find out more and register on Eventbrite.

New Website

Have you seen our new website?

We launched the 1st part of our new website together with the start of our Virtual Conference. We will be launching more over the coming weeks, so keep checking in what has been added.

We are looking forward to launching new Expert on Europe profiles, member's login area and multimedia content to advance your research.

Discover UACES new website

Announcements

JCMS Prize

The JCMS Editors and Prize Jury are delighted to announce the joint winners of the JCMS Best Article Prize for 2019.

We congratulate:

- James Harrison, Mirela Barbu, Liam Campling, Ben Richardson & Adrian Smith, 'Governing Labour Standards through Free Trade Agreements: Limits of the European Union's Trade and Sustainable Development Chapters', 57:2, pp. 260-277.

DOI: <https://doi.org/10.1111/jcms.12715>

The jury commented: 'This article is what JCMS does best: a rigorous, well written and unpretentious piece of research which enlightens a broader area, here the nexus between labour law standards and FTA. The methodology is impeccable: it is an impressive case study element with use of original interviews. This is a collaborative piece which brings people of different level and discipline together to work on a topic.'

- Mark Rhinard, 'The Crisisification of Policy-making in the European Union', 57:3, pp. 616-633 .

DOI: <https://doi.org/10.1111/jcms.12838>

The jury said of the article: 'This thought provoking article is timely, wide-ranging and compellingly argued. It is of clear significance to a very broad area of scholarship. It provides a careful and rigorous analysis. This is an important and impressive article. The jury loved this article, which "talks" to us intimately and resonate with the environment in which we are finding ourselves.'

On behalf of all UACES members and the JCMS editorial team, we would like to offer our congratulations to both winners.

From Member to Member

CfP, collaborations and exchange among the UACES community

EU IDEA – Integration and Differentiation for Effectiveness and Accountability

EU IDEA is launching “Framing Brexit: EU IDEA visual and video award”, aimed at giving the opportunity to young people to express through visual artworks how they are experiencing and interpreting the exit of the United Kingdom (UK) from the European Union (EU).

People between 18 and 30 years old are invited to illustrate through artistic creations what Brexit means for them. They can send us their videos, photos or any type of visual artworks representing how they are experiencing and interpreting the departure of the UK from the EU.

Find out more

Videos of the NEXTEUK International Conference

The NEXTEUK project aims to study the future of EU-UK relations in light of Brexit. They had their first conference 10-11 September and as a conference partner, UACES Virtual Conference participants were invited to attend the Keynote speech by Philip Rycroft.

See all videos here

CfP: UACES Collaborative Research Network on EU-China Relations

The UACES Collaborative Research Network on EU-China Relations organised by ESSCA School of Management & College of Europe invites applications by both senior and junior scholars, researchers, graduate students, practitioners and representatives of the private sector and the civil society of all nationalities to send us their paper proposals or case studies for the 9th Workshop on EU-China Relations in Global Politics.

The workshop will take place Wed-Thu, 4-5 November 2020.

Deadline for submission is Wed, 30 September 2020.

Find out more

If you have CfP or collaborations to share for the next newsletter, please email admin@uaces.org

UACES Research Networks (RNs)

Apply for Funding

UACES is delighted to offer funding to enable researchers to establish and develop international networks. Successful networks will receive up to 5,000 GBP spread over a 3-year period.

We are funding 3 new research networks for the term of 2021-2024:

- 2x UACES RNs on any topic in European Studies
- 1x UACES-JMCT (James Madison Charitable Trust), RN on federalism, federal governance or regionalism in Europe

Apply until 30 October 2020

The Research Network Funding is available with the support of the Erasmus+ Programme of the European Union.

Research Network Application Pack

News from the NORTIA Network

NORTIA roundtables

The network is planning another series of roundtables. Get in touch in case you would like to receive the newsletter with announcements of the series or if you have suggestions for a specific topic to be discussed.

Get in touch

Follow NORTIA

Visit the NORTIA website

Other

#FeatureFriday

Meet our members, our community and network. Keep an eye out for UACES #FeatureFriday on our social media channels. We want to bring the community closer by introducing and presenting our members, their achievements and their research on Fridays via our channels.

During summer, we featured our new Group Member CIFE, UACES Research Network 'The Limits of EUrope' and this year's created UACES Research Network 'The Role of Europe in Global Challenges: Climate Change and Sustainable Development'.

Do you want to be featured next? Get in touch via email admin@uaces.org.

Back to top

Copyright © 2020 UACES, All rights reserved.